Dear Dick and Harold,

I've just heard from the the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology on a request I made for manuals, etc. about medico-legal autopsies.

I'm getting the full copy of the AFIP Autopsy Manual for 50¢ from Govt. Printing Office. Harold loaned me copies of parts of this.

AFIP sells a book called "Medico-Legal Autopsy laws of the FifXty States and the District of Columbia." It costs around $3.00. It seems to me that this book could be valuable. However, I'm not asking that you chip in, or anything. Tell me, however, if either of has any interest in this for, if I buy it, I'll loan it to you. Also, if either of you know anything of this book which might influence whether I'd want it or not, please advise since I8m not going to buy it right away.

Still,

Howard

P.S.* AFIP stresses that this book is of medico-legal LAWS.
